Racial Barriers in North Still Solid

By JOHN STOWELL

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barriers to school desegregation continue to crumble in the South but remain solid in the North and are being rebuilt along the Mason-Dixon line, the government says.

The U.S. Office for Civil Rights released figures Tuesday showing that the 11 Southern states for the first time have fewer Negro pupils in all-black schools than does the North, and have widened the gap over the North in the number of blacks in predominantly white schools.

Integration virtually has halted in the last four years in the 32 Northern and Western states, the six border states and in the District of Columbia,

the report discloses.

More surprising, however, the report shows the number of blacks in totally segregated schools increased during the last year in the border states of Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland,

Missouri, Oklahoma and West

Virginia and in D.C.

The rise, from 23.1 to 24.2 per cent, is not significant except and that it marks a reversal from the trend elsewhere.

J. Stanley Pottinger, civil-rights director, said he was puzzled by the evidence of resegregation.

"I just don't know why," Pot-tinger said in an interview.
"We're going to have to check it out."

He suggested that the border states have escaped the concentrated attention directed at the South over the years.

Other civil-rights officials attributed the increase mainly to pupil distribution in large cities in the border states.

Although state-by-state statistics won't be available until the end of the school year, a breakdown of 76 cities is expected within a week.

The civil-rights report is based on a preliminary survey covering 2,700 school districts with 20 million pupils, one-fourth of them black.

It shows 9.2 per cent or 290, 390 Southern blacks attend segregated schools, compared with 11.2 per cent or 325,874 in the North and West. The gains were 4.9 per cent in the South and only .7 per cent in the North.

Enemy Offensive Gains Momentum

SAIGON (AP) — Communist forces hit more South Vietnamese outposts today on the third day of intensified ground action, and U.S. fighter-bombers exchanged missiles with anti-aircraft batteries inside North Vietnam for the first time this year.

Twenty-six more enemy ground attacks were reported in South Vietnam for the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. This brought the three-day total to 86, the most in more than three months.

The government said 33
North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops and 15 South Vietnamese soldiers were killed.
Twenty-five government soldiers and six civilians were reported wounded.

In the air war, two Air Force F105 fighter escorts launched three missiles at a surface-to-air missile site and an adjoining antiaircraft artillery battery after a SAM was fired at the American planes, the U.S.
Command said.

The results of the American attack were unknown and there was no damage to the U.S. aircraft, the command said.

The action occurred near the Ban Karai pass, about 40 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

Although it was the fifth so-called "protective reaction" strike inside North Vietnam this year, it was the first time that missiles had been exchanged in North Vietnam, the U.S. Command said.

In the ground fighting, the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese hit at least four government posts with strong attacks.

A battalion of some 200 Viet Cong troops got to within 10 miles of the coastal city of Qui Nhon, the capital of Binh Dinh Province 275 miles northeast of Saigon. They attacked a militia post, killing 10 South Vietnamese soldiers and wounding 13.

Enemy losses were not known.

Other enemy attacks came in the central coastal area, the Mekong Delta and 20 miles southwest of Saigon along the main road to the Delta.

The U.S. Command reported two mortar attacks against troops of the 190th Infantry Brigade and against the 11th Combat Aviation Group helicopter base, both on the outskirts of Da Nang. A total of 11 mortar shells hit the two units but caused no casualties or damage, the command said.

The increase in Communist attacks, although still on a small scale, has aroused fears among South Vietnamese officials that the enemy may be planning another offensive next month to coincide with the Tet festival of the lunar new year.

Nixon's trip to Red China a week later.

To meet the threat, thousands of South Vietnamese troops have been pulled back from bases in eastern Cambodia, including the major installation at Khek. Two weak Cambodian brigades that were supposed to take over the defense of Khek also pulled out, claiming they did not have the necessary heavy weapons.

School Budget Includes 70,000 More Troops to Be Withdrawn

Eight Mill Tax Hike

Hempstead County School District

has filed proposed annual budgets and Hope School District 1-A is seeking an increase of eight mills tax from 40 to 48 mills. A proposed 10 mill increase was defeated by district voters last year.

School Officials said they were seeking the eight mills instead of 10 because of Act 9 industry that have indicated they were willing to waive tax exemption rights and due to the normal annual increase from new construction which is bound to increase within the next two years.

The millage increase will enable the district to float a $400,000 bond issue, which will run 21 years, for the purpose of constructing and equipping new school buildings and making additions and improvements to existing buildings.

Although badly needed last year,

School Officials list the following as very critical needs now:

Elementary Schools

1-Paisley School, four new classrooms, new cafeteria and equipment, renovate the old building and four additional teachers.

2-Beryl Henry, five new classrooms and four additional teachers.

3-Special elementary personal such as music teacher for all elementary schools, counselor and librarian for all elementary schools.

Junior High School

Two additional teachers and a home economics teacher.

Hope High School

Renovation of facilities, an English teacher, repairs to school toilets, replacement of some floor covering and a major problem is replacement of a boiler and parts of heating system at a cost of $25,000. This system has been in use since the high school was built.

Following defeat of the 10 mill proposal last year meetings were called by alarmed residents and school directors to instigate a realistic and equal property tax revision program. A special committee was named to work with everyone to hire a special tax appraiser. This plan failed because of opposition from various groups and complete lack of cooperation from county officials, a school board member said.

At the meeting last year teachers of the Hope District Association told the Board they would work only as long as the money lasted unless district residents showed some action for improving the school situation. They would sign only eight month contracts.
That's how the situation now stands and nobody would venture to say whether or not school will run beyond the eight month term.

The election is set for March 14.

Year 2000 South Still to Control the Congress

By TOM SEPPY

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government projection indicates the South will continue to hold the largest number of seats in Congress in 2000, although the Western states will increase their share by 30 per cent.

However, all the Southern gains will be in Florida, Virginia and Texas. Seven Deep

South states will lose seats by the turn of the century because of population shifts.

Richard Lehne of the Department of Housing and Urban Development cites the statistics in a report for the Presidential

Commission on Population

Growth and the American future.

Lehne's study showed California and Florida, which have gained the greatest number of House seats over the past 20 years, will pick up 16 and 8 seats, respectively, by 2000.

New York and Pennsylvania will continue to lose congressmen.

The South has 135 of the 435 House seats; the figure was the same in 1950 and will be repeated in 2000, Lehne said, giving Dixie 30.8 per cent of the seats.

The 104 seats held by the Northeast will drop to 94 by 2000, and the North Central share will fall from 121 to 110.
The Western states' share of congressional representation is expected to climb from the present 76 seats, or 17.5 per cent, to 97, or 22.3 per cent, by 2000.

While California and Florida will be the big gainers, the number of states with only one House member will rise from four to eight with addition of Idaho, Montana, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Lehne says the most-striking feature of state-by-state projections is the great growth of California—from 30 congressional

Car Safety Costs More

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you're shopping for a new family car this year, you may pay an extra $25 to $36 for safety.

The government has told three major American automakers they can pass along to the consumer the cost of new safety devices included as standard equipment on 1972 models.

The Price Commission's action Wednesday means the list price of a $3,000 car will go up about $25 to $36 with variations from company to company depending on the devices included.

The automakers already had won Price Commission approval to raise 1972 list prices to reflect increases in other costs.

But the commission said the manufacturers have promised to ask no additional increases unless special circumstances occur.

Fire Destroys Two Rooms

Yesterday afternoon fire destroyed two back rooms at the W. McFadden residence at 316
Greenwood Street. Both rooms and contents were completely gutted. Firemen indicated the cause was from a heater in one of the rooms that ignited curtains.
There was no estimate of the amount of the loss.

Nixon's China Trip to Be Televised

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's trip to Peking next month may be the biggest live television spectacular since man first stepped onto the moon in mid-1969.

The White House announced

Wednesday there will be "some live television transmission" from Peking, the capital of the Communist country isolated from Washington for nearly 25 years and never visited by a

U.S. president.

What the White House did not say was that Americans and Chinese are cooperating in a TV game plan so extensive that much of Nixon's activities while in Peking can be beamed live to the President's election-year audience at home.

As an example, there is a plan to fly three mobile TV units—each the size of a large transit bus and one for each network—from the United States to mainland China.

Nixon's press secretary, Ronald L. Ziegler, said the Chinese have agreed to set up—at their expense—a communications ground station capable of transmitting live TV and radio reports plus newspaper pictures and stories.

The American-owned ground station, used most recently for coverage of Iran's 2,500th anniversary of the Persian Empire last autumn, will be removed after Nixon's visit.

Ziegler, who returned from an advance trip to China earlier this week, reported the

Tornado Hits Alabama, 3 Die, Many Injured

OZARK, Ala. (AP) — A tornado struck southeast Alabama today, killing three persons, injuring scores of others and destroying helicopters, house trailers and other property, authorities said.

The Dale County sheriff's office said three persons were killed.

The Public Information Office at Ft. Rucker, the huge Army base nearby, said 15 injured victims were admitted to Lister Army Hospital and "50 to 65 others" treated for minor injuries and discharged. Two were dead on arrival at the Army hospital. Another body was taken to a funeral home at Enterprise, near Ozark.

Deputy Sheriff C. F. Skipper at Ozark, who joined in the rescue efforts, said "it's terrible. Those trailers were just carried all over creation, possibly 50 to 75 of them, a rough estimate."

Skipper said emergency Army crews and law enforcement officers from surrounding communities rushed in to lend assistance and "we've got all kinds of help."

The deputy said the tornado struck Pine Brook and Dogwood Acres trailer courts just outside the Rucker reservation. It touched down later at Lowe Army Airfield at Rucker, destroying two UH1 helicopters on the ground and heavily damaging two others. Rucker is the home of the Army Aviation Center.

5 Americans Killed in Past Week

SAIGON (AP) — Five Americans were reported killed in action last week and 47 were reported wounded, the U.S. Command said today in its weekly casualty summary.

It was the 14th week in succession that fewer than 10 combat deaths were reported. The previous week two Americans were reported killed in action.

Eleven Americans died last week from nonhostile causes the command said.

The South Vietnamese command said 221 government troops were killed and 497 were wounded last week, about the same as the week before. The allied commands reported killing 803 enemy, 71 less than the total claimed the week before.

The number of Americans listed as missing or captured rose by one to 1,492.

The allied commands now have reported these casualty totals for the war:

American—45,632 killed in action, 302,493 wounded, 10,039 dead from nonhostile causes.

South Vietnamese—138,086 killed in action, 298,909 wounded.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong—790,478 killed.

Will Discuss Soybean Co-op

Mr. Soybean Producer would like to market your soybeans cooperatively? A meeting to discuss such an arrangement will be held at the Diamond Cafe on Monday night, January 17, at 7:00 o'clock, according to Calvin Caldwell, County Extension Agent.

To help explore the possibilities of a cooperative marketing association, James Mason, Assistant Manager, Administration; Bob Rawlings, Assistant Manager, Field Services, of Riceland Foods, and Dr. A.W. Woodward, Extension Marketing Specialist, will be here to meet with producers interested in this idea.

All soybean producers in Hempstead and neighboring counties interested in the cooperative idea of soybean marketing are urged to attend Mr. Caldwell said.

districts in 1960, through 43 in 1970, to 59 by 2000.

In 1960, Florida had the same number of congressional districts as Iowa and Kentucky, trailing 17 states in the number of districts. By 2000, Florida will have 23 districts, trailing only California, New York and Texas.

Lehne says Arizona and Texas will have gained four congressmen each in the 50 years between 1960 and the end of the century; Maryland, three and Colorado two. Six states will have gained two or more congressional districts in the same period.

Although growth in congressional representation has been concentrated in two states, losses will be more widely dispersed.

New York, which lost four congressmen since 1960, will drop another six by 2000 and Pennsylvania will match its total of five fewer representatives over the last 20 years with the loss of another five in the next 30.

Iowa and West Virginia will have lost four congressmen in the 50-year period. Seven other states will have three fewer, and five additional states each will be apportioned two fewer districts in 2000 than they had received in 1960.

In all, 16 states will have lost two or more congressional districts between 1960 and 2000.

A RARITY in American politics, former Massachusetts Gov. Endicott Peabody is an avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination—for vice-president. He has filed for the New Hampshire first-in-the-nation primary, March 7.

Army Officers Take Control of Ghana

LOME, Togo (AP) — Army officers overthrew the civilian government of Ghana Wednesday night and in a broadcast on Ghana Radio accused Prime Minister Kofi Busia of malpractice and economic mismanagement.

A broadcast from Accra, the Ghanaian capital, said the coup was led by Col. Ayitey Acheampong, a senior career officer who had been a regional administrator after the previous coup six years ago.

Busia, who was one of Mrs. Richard Nixon's hosts last week during her tour of West Africa, is in London for treatment of an eye ailment.

Acheampong dissolved the National Assembly and called on Busia's Cabinet ministers to report immediately to the nearest police station, Ghana Radio said.

A speaker claiming to be Acheampong said he would reconsider the Busia government's devaluation of the currency and limitations on the right of foreigners to live in Ghana.

The frontier between Togo and Ghana opened this morning, but the opening was 45 minutes later than usual.

Central Baptist Plans Revival

The Central Baptist Church on East Second Street in Prescott will begin a week end revival Friday evening, January 14, at 7:30. Rev. Carl Rea of Dallas, Texas will be the evangelist. He is a full time evangelist, is well known as an outstanding speaker among the churches of the Baptist Missionary Association of America.

Services will be Friday evening, Saturday evening, Sunday morning, and Sunday evening. Special music will be provided in each service. The members and pastor, Arlis East, invite the public to attend.

Conviction of Priest Reversed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The contempt conviction of the Rev. James Groppi by the Wisconsin legislature in 1969 was reversed 7 to 0 today by the Supreme Court.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger said the punishment, without hearing the militant priest, violated constitutional procedures. The fact that Groppi was held in contempt two days after his allegedly contemptuous conduct was a major factor in the court's ruling.

Groppi was held in contempt by the Wisconsin Assembly Oct. 1, 1969, for his part in a welfare demonstration that blocked the legislature for about 12 hours two days earlier. At the time the resolution was passed Groppi was in the Dane County jail on disorderly conduct charges arising from the same incident.

The contempt resolution was adopted without giving the priest an opportunity to present a defense.

Burger said: "We have stated time and again that reasonable notice of a charge and an opportunity to be heard in defense before punishment is imposed are basic in our system of jurisprudence."

At such a hearing, Burger

Wallace in Formal Announcement

By RICH OPPEL
Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — George C. Wallace formally announced as a Democratic candidate for president today and called for a grass roots movement to wrest control of the party from "so-called intellectual snobs."

Wallace, the 52-year-old governor of Alabama, chose the capital of a large Southern state with a key March 14 presidential primary election to make the announcement.

"Our offering is a new beginning of hope for the American people," Wallace said in remarks prepared for a news conference in the Capitol's Senate chamber.

Wallace, who ran third behind President Nixon and Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey as the American Independent party candidate in 1968, said he intended to keep his name on the Florida ballot as a Democratic candidate.

He said Floridians have a "unique opportunity" in choosing from among the 12 Democrats, including Humphrey, nominated to be on the ballot by Secretary of State Richard Stone.

"They can start the grass roots movement to take back the national Democratic party unto themselves. Too long this party has been controlled by the so-called intellectual snobs who feel that big government should control the lives of American citizens from the cradle to the grave," the governor said.

Wallace coupled his 1972 platform with a broadside attack on "those in Congress" also seeking the White House. That includes 8 of the 12 Democrats currently on the Florida ballot.

The money derived from the sale of tickets will be used for the Building Fund of the new church, and ticket chairmen will be Mrs. Calvin Smith and Mrs. Wesley Huddleston.

This was one of the decisions reached when Circle 5 met in the home of Mrs. Herman Smith on Monday, January 10. The food committee named to handle the luncheon will be Mrs. Charles Burtch, Mrs. Matt McCauley, Mrs. Paul Bain and Mrs. Robert Parham. More details of the luncheon will be released later.

In other matters of business, pledge cards were distributed, the Book of Matthew was chosen for the study topic in 1972, and Mrs. Arthur Dillard was welcomed as a new member of the Circle.

Keeping in mind the big undertaking for the new year, building a new sanctuary and parsonage, Mrs. Wesley Huddleston brought an appropriate program on two necessary ingredients that lead to success—Faith and God-given talent.

Mrs. Herman Smith and Mrs. Calvin Smith served a dessert plate with coffee or cold drinks for refreshments.

SIGNED FOR MAME
NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Fryer has been signed to produce "Mame," film version of the Broadway musical, for Warner Bros.

Fryer produced the original stage production which ran on Broadway for more than three years and closed two years ago after 1,508 performances.

The coordinated look with skirts, jackets, sleeveless vests and pants are all interchangeable to give many different looks. Single-breasted jacket with body shirt and flare pants in Dacron polyester (left) gives a sophisticated look to the casual. Then comes the imagination. An accordion-pleated skirt with sleeveless vest and long, white flare pants with single-breasted jacket (center) show the tricks of switching. Crew-neck shell with placket front is a perfect top to the wrap-front pant skirt with contrasting trim (right).

Finds Picking Jobs Not So Easy Nowadays

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — A young man starting out now doesn't have the pick of jobs he did a few years ago.

Getting any kind of job seems to him today about the most important thing in the world. But there are jobs and jobs. If possible, a fellow should try his best to find one that he can fit into or grow into.

Here, for example, are some jobs we wouldn't want to risk our future in:

Teaching Casey Stengel the English language.
U.S. Marine drill sergeant of a class containing Muhammad

Ali.
The fire insurance salesman who sells policies to wax museums.

A cowboy in India, where cows have the right of way at all times.
Guardian angel for Frank Sinatra.

Mayor of New York City, when everybody in town is on strike except the street chestnut vendors.

President of the United States, when half the people want you to get into a war and half of them want you to boycott it.

A bomb inspector for the Saigon police department.
A kilts salesman in Tel Aviv.

A marriage counselor in an Eskimo village.
Presidential campaign poetry adviser for former Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

The men's charm school director who has the task of making Sen. Edmund Muskie look both like a matinee idol and a homespun Maine potato farmer.

A staff psychiatrist for Congress.
Men's washroom attendant at a national convention of the Women's Liberation Movement.

Entertainment chairman for any local chapter of the National Society of Embalmers.
Quality control manager of any television network.

City supervisor of morals in Las Vegas.
Protocol adviser to Martha Mitchell.

Leader of an emergency expedition to rescue the sinking U.S. dollar.
Barber in a hippie commune.

Tailor in a nudist colony.
Yes, there are some jobs that make a guy feel he'd be better off without—and just live on his unemployment checks.

Helen and Sue Bottel The Generation Gap

Letter From a Black Girl
DEAR RAP:
This is in answer to "Cynic" who is getting turned off by racism. You answered him well, but I'd like to add a few things:

What the Cynic terms "an assertion of racial superiority" is not what racial pride is all about. "Black is beautiful" does not mean black is MORE beautiful, but black is AS beautiful as white.

Every oppressed people must go through this stage and realize who they are. This is only a step towards self-respect, of course some overdo it, but don't a few do that in every race?

It is good the Cynic understands the anger that minority groups have towards whites. But something else must also be understood. The Cynic understands the anger that minority groups have towards whites. But something else must also be understood. The Cynic is not directly responsible for the terrible things the Caucasian race has done. But if he does not try to change the situation in his lifetime, he is guilty of being passive.

After World War II, people were tried and found guilty for not speaking out against the Nazis. The Cynic should not feel guilty, but he should try to do something to change things as they are now.

Since he is white, the best place is in the white community. Many whites are not even as educated about the Third World as he is.

The fight goes beyond color. We all have to fight this thing: red, black, white, brown, yellow. Each person has to decide for himself who the enemy is, and how to change him. —MELINDA KAY, A BLACK GIRL

DEAR HELEN AND SUE:
Why is it that when a guy takes a girl out, he thinks it's his duty to go park and make out?

None of the guys around here even plan their dates. Do you think they would take a girl to a show, horseback riding, to a carnival or game, to the beach, to dinner, skating, bowling, or to a dance? Even a good walk to a museum, or an invitation to help him wash his car would be appreciated.

There are lots of things that don't cost much money, and they're a lot more fun than sitting in a car for two or three hours glued to each other!

What can be done to get the point over to boys? —SICK AND TIRED OF IT

DEAR SATOI:
Polish up your "No Parking" button and let the guys know the difference between a cheap date and a date that cheapens. So long as you ACCEPT "submarine hunts" you'll get nothing better. —HELEN

DEAR TIRED:
A friend of mine has the ultimate reply to those guys who figure every girl should park. She says, "It's my football, my field, and my rules." You'd be surprised how many decide to play the game her way. —SUE

Cowboys Rated Over the Dolphins by 6 Points

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Jimmy The Greek hit town today with his fancy black-and-white checkered knits, his slide rule and crystal ball and predicted the Dallas Cowboys by six over the Miami Dolphins in Sunday's Super Bowl.

"If it weren't for the intangible which we'll call the destiny factor—the belief by the Dolphins that they can't be beaten—the spread would be even greater," said the dark-haired odds-maker from Las Vegas.

This is Jimmy The Greek's kind of town—wide open, jumpy and jivvy with its bustling Bourbon Street and the never-ending flavor of the old steamboat days.

Jimmy "The Greek" Snyder is the nation's most renowned handicapper, figure of odds whether it be a football game or a presidential race and he inevitably shows up where the action is.

He is offended when he is called a bookmaker. He isn't. His profession is public relations. His hobby—a lucrative one—is analysis of contests.

"You must give Dallas a point on overall team speed," he said. "You must add another for its depth and experience."

"I don't see much difference in the rival quarterbacks, for instance—Robert Staubach for Dallas and Bob Griese for Miami—but there is a tremendous gap in the dropoff from Staubach to Craig Morton and from Griese to George Mira.

"You can find the same difference in the reserves in every other department—running backs, offensive line and defensive line."

The Las Vegas wizard said he was not greatly concerned by the doubts surrounding Calvin Hill's right knee. Hill, the Cowboys' 6-4, 220-pound running back, had his knee go out on him in the 49ers game 10 days ago.

"Even should they lose Hill, the Cowboys have Walt Garrison," Jimmy The Greek said. "He radiates excitement. He will knock your brains out."

Snyder said the explosive qualities of Hill, Garrison and the unpredictable Duane Thomas as rate an edge over the Dolphins' Butch Cassidy-Sundance Kid combination of Larry Czonka and Jim Kiick.

"Czonka and Kiick can be counted on for three, four and five yards a carry but I doubt that will be good enough," he added. "Miami must establish a running game quickly. If it is unable to do so, then goodbye."

"Miami has a dangerous wide receiver in Paul Warfield but I rate the combination of Bob Hayes and Lance Alworth an edge in that particular area."

"Dallas' defense and pass rush should be superior. I see no difference in the kicking games, despite all the attention given the Dolphins' Garo Yepremian."

Pro Games Decided by Close Margins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Wednesday night was the kind of night National Basketball Association Commissioner Walter Kennedy dreams about: Four games on the NBA schedule—two were decided by one point, two were decided by two points.

What's more, the three teams with the best records in the NBA—Los Angeles, Milwaukee and Chicago—all were beaten, adding some support to the old claim that on any given night...

The Lakers, 39-3 on the season prior to Sunday, lost for the second time in three games when Tom Van Arsdale sank a 15-foot jumper with just one second showing on the clock to give the Cincinnati Royals a 106-107 decision over Los Angeles.

The Bucks, who ended Los Angeles' record 33-game winning skid Sunday, lost their second in a row when Lou Hudson poured in 20 points in the second half to lift Atlanta to a 104-102 victory over Milwaukee.

And the Bulls, trying to gain ground on Milwaukee in the NBA's Midwest Division race, were thwarted when Don Nelson tipped in a shot by Jo Jo White with three seconds left, then added a free throw to give the Boston Celtics a 113-112 decision over Chicago.

In the other NBA game, Bob Kauffman sank a pair of free throws with two seconds left to lift Buffalo to a 111-109 upset of Philadelphia.

In the only American Basketball Association game of the night, Dallas climbed out of the ABA West Division cellar by dumping Denver 107-102, moving ahead of the Rockets into fourth place.

Cincinnati Coach Bob Cousy called his team's win over Los Angeles "our most satisfying victory," adding that it was "our first unexpected one of the year."

The Royals led 62-50 at the half but the Lakers cut the gap to 106-105 with 24 seconds to go on baskets by Happy Hairston and Wilt Chamberlain. Cincinnati then killed most of the remaining time before Van Arsdale put in the clincher. A dunk by Chamberlain at the buzzer was uncontested, as it left LA one point short.

Van Arsdale led all scorers with 31 points, while Chamberlain had 24.

Milwaukee trailed by 17 pack to an 85-58 triumph over ACC rival Duke.

Larry Finch's 24 points paced Memphis State to an 82-65 victory over Louisiana State. Mark Wehrle and Dan McGuire split 44 points in guiding Rice to an 87-74 decision over Georgia Tech.

Sophomore Bill Knight's 26 points keyed Pitt's 91-76 victory over Davidson. West Virginia posted its sixth triumph in seven games, beating Bucknell 88-73 as Wil Robinson pumped in 24 points.

Toledo's high-flying Rockets breezed to their eighth consecutive victory and 10th in 11 games, soaring past Butler 78-55 with Tom Kozelko scoring 27 points.

Travis Grant, the nation's college division scoring leader, collected 36 points as Kentucky State whipped Lincoln 106-90.

points with eight minutes to play, managed to cut the gap to two but couldn't pull even. Walt Bellamy led Atlanta with 29 points, while Kareem Jabbar netted 26 for Milwaukee.

White was Boston's high scorer with 31, while Nelson came off the bench to chip in 16. Chet Walker had 22 for Chicago.

Elmore Smith tallied 26, Kauffman netted 25 and Dick Garrett added 24 to spark Buffalo.

Simmie Hill scored 17 of his 19 points in the second half as Dallas outscored Denver 33-16 in the final period. Denver held a 12-point lead at the start of the final period.

S. Carolina in Rout of Manhattan

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer
Danny Traylor was left on his own because of an injury to Tom Riker—and the hulking 7-foot junior more than made up for the absence of his forecourt colleague.

The 250-pound Traylor from Winston-Salem, N.C., played the best game of his collegiate career, scoring 37 points, grabbing 20 rebounds and blocking six shots Wednesday night in leading South Carolina's fourth-ranked basketball team to a 116-78 rout of Manhattan.

"He knew he had to do it alone, and he really came through," said South Carolina Coach Frank McGuire.

The 6-10 Riker sat on the bench in street clothes nursing a "fractured" bone in his left hand, suffered in Sunday's 72-71 setback to second-ranked Marquette.

McGuire said he directed his players to "go inside to Danny more during the second half, and he came through with some beautiful moves under the basket."

The victory boosted South Carolina's record to 8-2. Manhattan, 1-8, was led by 6-7 Ron Manning with 23 points.

Meanwhile, third-ranked North Carolina pulled away in the second half for an 81-61 victory over Clemson in an Atlantic Coast Conference game. Assistant coaches Bill Gohtsridge and John Lotz directed the Tar Heels in the second half after Head Coach Dean Smith was ejected by referee Lou Moser.

Smith was tossed out and charged with two technical fouls for grabbing Moser's arm as the teams went off the court at halftime with North Carolina leading by only two points.

"It was a misunderstanding," Smith said afterward. "Tates Locke (Clemson coach) and I were going to talk to the officials about the calls in an aggressive game."

Bob McAdoo's 28 points paced the Tar Heels, now 10-1.

Fifth-rated Louisville won its 10th in a row after an opening loss, downing Dayton 71-64 behind Jim Price's 25 points.

Unbeaten Virginia, the No. 8 team, won its 12th game, trouncing George Washington 97-76 as Barry Parkhill led the way with 23 points. Ronnie Runn scored a career high 34 for George Washington.

Dwight Lamar, the nation's leading scorer, played despite the flu and a 101 temperature, but still managed to score 31 points, helping 13th-rated Southwestern Louisiana raise its record to 10-1 with a 99-79 romp over Eastern New Mexico. Roy Ebron, a 6-9 sophomore, led Southwestern with 35 points and 15 rebounds.

Hawaii, ranked 19th, posted its 12th victory in 13 starts, holding off Connecticut 77-71.

Marshall, rated 20th, increased its winning streak to seven games and its over-all record to 11-2, overpowering DePaul 102-76 as Russell Lee scored a season-high 33 points.

Tom Burleson, North Carolina State's 7-4 sophomore, poured in 30 points and snared 12 rebounds, sparking the Wolf-

Clean, Pure Rule Could Torpedo Winter Olympics

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — A team of investigators is sifting through piles of paper in an 18th century Lake Geneva chateau here gathering evidence of Olympic "criminals" that could torpedo the Winter Olympics in Sapporo, Japan, before they even start.

The investigators are members of the International Olympic headquarters in the chateau. They're looking for violations of the stringent Olympic eligibility rule that says no athlete can be tied up with advertising.

The rule, aimed at keeping the Games "clean, pure and honest" and strictly amateur, was proclaimed by the IOC's president, 84-year-old Chicago industrialist Avery Brundage, when it went into force last spring.

Although it was approved by all 74 IOC members, it has touched off a searing controversy unparalleled in the modern Olympics 80-year history.

According to Willy Scheffler, head of the U.S. Alpine team, Brundage plans to propose the expulsion of more than 30 of the world's top skiers from the Sapporo Games, scheduled to start Feb. 3.

But a recent visitor to the chateau reported the investigation has dug up evidence against top athletes in a wide range of other winter Olympic events.

IOC Information Director Monique Berlioux, who is in charge of the investigation, there is enough evidence to affect the Sapporo Games. But she gave no names.

Once evidence of a violation is uncovered, an inquiry is made by the National Olympics Committee concerned. Then the dossiers, with the committee's comments, are turned over to tough-talking Australian Hugh Weir, an IOC member who backs Brundage's controversial campaign to "keep the games clean."

Weir heads the special watchdog committee formed last year to chase after national committees following alleged "laxity" in enforcing the amateur rules.

Madame Berlioux said she could not name any winter sports where commercialism has not made inroads—especially in the countries where it is most popular.

Weir's "witchhunters" have started a session in Tokyo Jan. 26-27 to draft what is likely to be its final indictment. It will be submitted to the IOC executive board at a meeting during the following two days.

The full IOC session, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1, in Sapporo, then will have the authority to decide what to do with the Olympic sinners.

FAIRFIELD, Iowa (AP) — No matter how you look at it Wednesday was not a good night for the Albert Lea, Minn., basketball team.

The least of the team's troubles was dropping a 129-56 game to Parsons College here that started at 10:30 p.m.

First, the Minnesota team informed Parsons it would be a little late for the 7:30 p.m. game because of a late start from Albert Lea.

The two-car team caravan was stopped near Kellogg for speeding. The whole group was hauled into justice of the peace court.

After its court appearance, the team was just leaving Kellogg when police reportedly brought the group back to court because of an alleged mess they reportedly created in the lavatory of the justice of the peace court.

Fines totaling $100 were assessed before the team left Kellogg.

Only about 75 to 100 people remained from an original crowd of 500 when the game was played.

Parsons added insult to injury by setting a school scoring record—for the second time this season—against the weary team, now 1-9.

The old mark was 122 scored at Albert Lea in December.

Arkansas State Is Real Hot

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State University hit 61 per cent of its field shots and turned back Wichita State 84-74 in a nonconference basketball game here Wednesday night.

Forward Steve Brooks scored 26 points and guard Calvin Breedlove collected 21, including 19 in the first half, to pace the Indians to their fifth victory against four defeats. Wichita dropped to 7-3.

Game Pairs Chicken and Jethro

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — It'll be "Chicken Man vs. Jethro Pugh" in one of those two-man wars certain to influence Sunday's outcome of Super Bowl VI.

Larry "Chicken" Little is a 265-pound All-Pro guard in Miami's potent offense. Pugh, who weighs 260, will be across the Super Bowl turf as the centerpiece in the Dallas Cowboy defense.

"Pugh's got the longest arms I've ever seen on a man," said Little. "I'm gonna try to keep his hands off me. If you don't watch him, he'll wrap you up like an octopus."

Little's nickname—"Chicken"—does not reflect his manly characteristics, but, instead, comes from the big fellow's love for fired fowl.

"Next to Colonel Sanders, I guess I'm the biggest man around on chicken," he jokes. "I eat a lot, not too many starches, through. I'm mainly a meat man."

Little, a product of tiny Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach, Fla., bounced out of obscurity when Miami Coach Don Shula forced him to pare down a body that was growing almost daily.

"I weighed 215 pounds as a college freshman, was 240 the next year, 250 the next and graduated at 260," says Little. "Then, I went on up to 270 as a rookie in the pros and was 285 the second, wondering where it was gonna stop."

Shula stopped it.

After two fruitless years with the San Diego Chargers, Little was swapped to Miami—his old hometown.

Little played at 285 under former Dolphin Coach George Wilson in 1969, but when Shula was hired in 1970, orders were forthcoming to discard the fat.

"Coach Shula wrote me a letter," recalls Little. "I knew it was coming about my size ... but I figured he'd ask me to lose down to 270 or 275. When I saw that 265 figure, I asked myself, 'How'm I'm gonna do it?'"

The alternatives were financially scary.

"I was told I'd be fined $10 a pound every day that I was in camp above 265," said Larry. "I'd been poor before and that was a quick way to get there again."

Little's addition was excellent. He knew that if he played at 280, the tariff would be $150 a day ... or $4,500 a month. So, the weight came down and Little's career skyrocketed.

The National Football League players voted him the league's best offensive lineman of 1970. This year he was All-Pro.

"All it would take to make it complete," he said, "would be to go home with the Super Bowl trophy. I've gotta do my part against Jethro Pugh. That won't be easy, but winning the Super Bowl won't ever be easy for anybody."

However, he garnered enough votes to make the West squad and will play against the East—and one of his Carolina teammates, Jim McDaniels.

Ladner, however, will not be a starter. The West's opening lineup will have center Zemo Beatty of Utah, forwards Roger Brown of Indiana and Willie Wise of Utah, and guards Ralph Simpson of Denver and Glen Combs of Utah.

Ladner, a forward, will be on the bench along with forward Wilbert Jones of Memphis, guards Steve Jones and Donnie Freeman of Dallas, and center Mel Daniels of Indiana.

Beatty, averaging 24.3 points and 14 rebounds a game, was the top vote-getter with 52 first-place nominations out of 66 ballots and a total of 250 points in beating out Daniels for the starting center spot.

Daniels, the league's most valuable player last season and the MVP in last year's All-Star game, won by the East 126-122, received 14 first-place votes and 210 points in making the West team for the fifth straight year.

The East team, in addition to McDaniels, will include Charlie Scott and Julius Erving of Virginia, John Brisker and George Thompson of Pittsburgh, Dan Issel and Artis Gilmore of Kentucky, Rick Barry and Bill Melchionni of New York, and Mack Calvin of the Floridians.

Utah's LaDell Andersen will coach the West, and Kentucky's Joe Mullaney will lead the East.

Hill can't stand talk that an injured knee may keep him out of Sunday's joust with the Miami Dolphins.

"That would be just too much after what happened last season," said the Dallas Cowboy running back.

Hill got into action for only two plays in Super Bowl V against Baltimore in a 16-13 loss. He returned the opening kickoff. And he was blocking when Duane Thomas fumbled the ball away on the goal line to the Colts.

The rest of the game Hill was ignored by Coach Tom Landry. Hill had lost his job to Thomas after suffering shoulder and rib injuries.

This year Hill was a terror in pre-season and started the year as the No. 1 running back while Thomas fussed with the front office over money problems. Hill prospered.

Then the injury problems hit—a bad shoulder and finally what may be a torn cartilage in his right knee.

Meanwhile, the suspense is too much for Hill, a former star at Yale.

"I was born in January, married in January and I want the Cowboys to win the Super Bowl in January with me in the backfield," Hill said. "I've had all the splinters in my seat from sitting on the bench I ever want to get."

Baseball Draft Goes for Tall Hurlers

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Who is the tallest baseball pitcher you can think of? Well, we've got one who's taller.

Is your man Gene Conley? He's 6-foot-8, a shrimp compared to our guy.

Do you like Johnny Gee? At 6-foot-9, he'd still look up to our man.

Meet Wayne Piper Jr., 6-feet, 10-inches worth of pitcher, selected Wednesday by the Montreal Expos in the opening round of baseball's winter free agent draft.

"He's probably a side-arm-mer," noted Monte Irvin, a member of Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's staff who used to make a living swinging a bat against guys like Conley, the ex-Braves and Red Sox pitcher, and Gee, who used to hurl for the Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Giants.

Piper was one of 15 pitchers selected by the 24 major league teams in the opening round of the draft as the farm directors and scouts went hurler-happy.

The No. 1 selection was Eric Raich, a strapping right-hander from the University of Southern California, chosen by the Cleveland Indians.

"We were impressed with his pitching ability and major league potential," said Phil Seghi, director of player personnel for the Indians. "Our scouts tell us he was the best player available in this draft and that he is very much interested in professional baseball. We are very pleased to select a pitcher of his calibre."

The only non-pitcher among the first seven selections was Philadelphia's choice of third baseman Ricky Knepper of Boonsboro, Md.

Included among the first round picks was Joseph Krnch, an outfielder from Wichita State, chosen by the New York Yankees, and son of ex-major leaguer Rocky Krsnich. In the secondary phase of the draft, Cincinnati, choosing for Sioux Falls, picked Gary Erskine, son of ex-Brooklyn Dodger pitcher Carl Erskine. The youngster is a pitcher-outfielder at the University of Texas.

A total of 267 players were chosen in the regular and secondary phases of the draft which was conducted through a conference call telephone hook-up linking all 24 major league teams with Commissioner Kuhn's office.

Couldn't Happen But It Surely Did

NEW YORK (AP) — Wendell Ladner, a member of an Eastern Division team, will play for the West in the American Basketball Association's All-Star game at Louisville Jan. 29.

How can that happen?

When ballots were sent out to sportswriters and broadcasters throughout the league for voting for the mid-season game, Ladner was with the Memphis Pros of the West. But as the voting was being conducted, he was traded to the Carolina Cougars of the East.

However, he garnered enough votes to make the West squad and will play against the East—and one of his Carolina teammates, Jim McDaniels.

Ladner, however, will not be a starter. The West's opening lineup will have center Zemo Beatty of Utah, forwards Roger Brown of Indiana and Willie Wise of Utah, and guards Ralph Simpson of Denver and Glen Combs of Utah.

'Dixie' Playing Case Dismissed

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals has dismissed a complaint filed in 1968 over the playing of the song "Dixie" at Jonesboro High School.

The song was played at a pep rally Nov. 1, 1968 and resulted in a walkout and subsequent suspension of 29 black students.

The appellate court, in a 13-page opinion, upheld a previous ruling of U.S. District Court, saying: "The court held that there was no federal question involved and the complaint was dismissed. We affirm the judgment of the district court."

The suit was filed by parents of two of the students who were suspended.

"The sole issue before us is whether or not plaintiffs... and others similarly situated, have been denied their constitutional rights of freedom of speech, due process and equal protection by their suspension from school... for violating the school rules by deliberately attending a regularly scheduled pep rally where they knew that the tune "Dixie" would be playing and demonstrated by getting up and walking out in violation of the rules of the school," the opinion.

The opinion noted that all students had been advised in advance that "Dixie" would be played at the pep rally and that those who did not wish to attend could report instead to the auditorium.

"Despite their forewarned notice and option, the offending students deliberately violated established school rules and thereafter they failed and refused to discuss their suspension with school authorities and offered no evidence in justification at their trial..." the opinion said.

Thinks Friday Mistreated

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Wednesday that Herschel H. Friday, a Little Rock lawyer, had been "mistreated" by the American Bar Association.

McClellan said he understood that Friday would have been appointed to the U.S. Supreme Court if the bar group had not refused to endorse him.

The senator said that President Nixon was not to blame for Friday not getting the appointment and that he did not believe the President had mentioned Friday as a possible nominee to displace antagonism in the Senate for his real nominees.

McClellan said he did not believe the bar association should have the absolute power to decide who would be the nominee to the court.

"I never let them control me," McClellan said. "I take it to account their recommendation... I don't think their recommendations should be dominant."

King of Denmark Is Critical

COPENHAGEN (AP) — King Fredrik's condition deteriorated further during the night, and the 72-year-old Danish monarch slipped deeper into unconsciousness, his doctors reported today.

A bulletin from the coronary ward of Copenhagen Municipal Hospital said the king's fever had gone up to 103.8.

"His Majesty's condition deteriorated somewhat in the past 24 hours," the bulletin said. "The blurring of consciousness increased."

The king went to bed with influenza on New Year's Eve, developed pneumonia and suffered a heart attack on Jan. 3. His condition improved greatly toward the end of last week, but he suffered a relapse on Tuesday.

RETURNS TO STAGE

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Eloise Martin, a Ziegfeld Follies girl of the 30's, is returning to show business as an impressionist.

Married and divorced three-times she says she can't get the old romance of show business out of her system.

LONG SHOT— Another entry in the presidential nomination derby is Rep. John M. Ashbrook, R-Ohio, who is honing up his challenge to President Nixon. Ashbrook, supported by conservatives, is not in sympathy with some Nixon policies.

Suspect Held in Bank Bombs Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — A man described as an AWOL Army private with a Ph.D. from Stanford University has been charged in connection with the planting of time bombs in three San Francisco banks, the FBI announced today.

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover identified the suspect as Ronald Kaufman, who has been charged in a federal warrant issued in San Francisco with maliciously attempting to damage and destroy the three banks.

Kaufman, who is still at large, was identified through fingerprints found on various bomb components taken from the bank safe deposit boxes, Hoover said.

The announcement said Kaufman, 33, was born in Milwaukee, Wis., and lived in Berkeley, Calif., until July 1971, shortly before he re-enlisted in the Army.

He took a 30-day leave from Ft. Polk, La., Dec. 9, with orders to report to Ft. Jackson, S.C., Jan. 9 for shipment overseas, the agency said. There is no record that he reported to Ft. Jackson.

Last Friday, letters postmarked in Chicago were received by newspapers and a television station in Chicago and San Francisco disclosing the presence of bombs planted in bank safe deposit boxes in those two cities and New York. They claimed the bombs were part of a radical new strategy to force the release of "political prisoners."

Police found time bombs in two San Francisco banks, three in Chicago and three in New York. One which exploded Labor Day weekend in San Francisco but had been kept secret apparently was part of the plot.

A photo of Kaufman released by the FBI showed a thin, smiling face, clean-shaven except for long sideburns and unkempt

Hefty Pensions Luring Solons Into Retirement

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lure of hefty pensions and the political uncertainties of redistricting may produce a bumper crop of voluntary retirements from the House this year.

Some elder statesmen are losing their zest for a tough re-election fight. They are considering retiring to front-porch rocking chairs and waiting for the postman to deliver fat monthly annuity checks.

The checks could total as much as $34,000 a year in some cases. That's the maximum for members who retire after March 1 of this year. It is based on the average of a member's three highest salary years and length of service.

The current congressional pay of $42,500 a year went into effect on March 1, 1969.

No member who retires may receive more than 80 per cent of the $42,500, or $34,000. To qualify for that he must have served at least 32 years, of which 5 years could have been in military service and the remaining 27 in Congress.

Service in other federal agencies also may be counted under some conditions.

Members pay 8 per cent of their salary into the retirement fund, with the federal taxpayers matching that.

The amount of pension is determined by multiplying the number of years of eligibility by 2 1/2 per cent.

Members who retire or are defeated for re-election without acquiring the maximum years of service and reaching age 62 may receive reduced benefits starting generally at age 50.

Rep. Richard H. Poff, R-Va., who has announced his retirement at the end of this year after 20 years of service will be eligible for a $21,250 pension if he has participated in the retirement plan. Names of participants are not made public, but most members have signed up.

Poff, who will be 50 next year, would have faced a re-election contest against incumbent William C. Wampler, also a Republican, because of redistricting in Virginia.

Similar problems confront some other House members who are considering retirement rather than a hard and costly campaign against a colleague.

Widows of U.S. presidents receive pensions of $10,000 annually and free mailing privileges.

Withdrawal Depends on the Communists

PARIS (AP) — The South Vietnamese government asserted today that the withdrawal of all U.S. forces from South Vietnam depends on Communist willingness to negotiate the withdrawal of North Vietnamese troops as well as on the release of American prisoners of war.

The U.S. government endorsed this stand, which appeared to set a new condition for a total American withdrawal.

South Vietnamese representative Pham Dang Lam told the Communists at the 140th session of the Vietnam peace talks:

"Whether all the allied forces leave South Vietnam or there remain residual forces, and how long these forces will take to disengage, depends on whether or not you accept to negotiate seriously on the problem of troop withdrawal as part of an over-all settlement, as well as on the question of the release of prisoners of war."

Among American Indians, crossed arrows were a symbol of friendship.

OUT FOR A TEST RUN, an air-cushion dinghy, latest in the expanding family of hovercraft types, zips along the Seine River at Paris. Designed for much rougher territory, the inflatable craft was specifically designed for use on an exploration expedition into the river areas of Asia's Himalayan mountains to be led by Michel Peissel, at the controls.

No Sure Cure For Senility

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.
Dear Dr. Lamb—The increasing number of older people suffering senility is pitiful. Is there nothing yet available to relieve the blood vessels to the brain or what ever is the chief cause of this affliction?

I have an aunt, three cousins, and a sister who completely lost all mentality long before they died. Now, at 68, I fear the same.

Dear Reader—It certainly is depressing. A certain number of these problems are caused by changes in the arteries to the brain. Some are the result of little strokes. There is some evidence now that people who have high levels of blood pressure are more likely to have this problem. Other people develop senility because of basic changes in how the brain cells function. We still don't know much about that yet—or at least not enough to prevent senility or to treat it properly.

There is also some evidence that drinking appreciable amounts of alcohol leads to earlier changes in the brain and senility. About the best that can be recommended at present to help prevent this problem is "good clean living" which means moderation or abstinence from alcohol, too much food, rich foods high in fats, cigarettes and getting proper exercise. The program advised to prevent heart disease is a good one to prevent senility and little strokes.

Individuals with even high normal blood pressure should do their best to decrease any body fat they might have, and stay as lean as possible. If the blood pressure is actually elevated and cannot be lowered by adequate weight reduction, then it might be well to take medicine to lower it.

Dear Dr. Lamb—What in layman's terms is "chronic cholecystitis?" Is there any effective treatment for it? And, if not, is there any danger of further complications arising out of its prolongation?

Dear Reader—Chronic means long-term, as opposed to acute which means short-term or sudden. It means inflammation. Chole is from a Greek word for bile. Cyst refers to a bladder. This chronic cholecystitis is long-term inflammation of the gall (bile) bladder.

How serious it is depends on the individual case. It can cause minor symptoms of indigestion; or it can cause pain or release stones into the bile duct to cause even more trouble, which can involve the liver and even the pancreas. The latter happens when a stone lodges in the common drainage duct from the liver where the pancreas empties into the small intestine at the same spot.

Depending upon the health of the person involved and how severe the problem is, the gallbladder may be removed.

Two Killed at Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —Two persons were killed and one person injured Tuesday in a two-vehicle crash about 16 miles south of here on U.S. 71. State Police identified the victims as Mary D. # AF Develops Smarter Bomb

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — With television camera in its nose and a steering system in its tail, the Air Force's "smart bomb" strikes its target in Indochina 10 times more often than a conventional bomb. That judgment was offered by pilots now stationed at the Pentagon after duty in Vietnam and experience with the two types of smart bombs first introduced in Southeast Asia four years ago. The other type relies on a laser beam to lock the bomb onto its target. Pilots say the tenfold increase in accuracy curtails the number of repeat sorties to bomb targets missed the first time around and thus, reduces the risk to pilot and plane. Specific figures are classified, but reports after the laser-guided bombs were first introduced in Vietnam said more than 70 per cent of nearly 1,000 dropped found their mark. Contrary to some reports, smart bombs are unable to zoom around hilltops or crawl around corners, but they are able to knock out such difficult targets as narrow road intersections, bridges, dams, tunnels and supply caches which often defy destruction with conventional bombs or air-to-ground missiles. Essentially, smart bombs are conventional iron bombs of 750, 1,000 or 2,000 pounds equipped with either a laser guidance kit or electro-optical (TV) kit. They differ from missiles in that they have no propulsion system other than gravity and the speed of release. With the laser-guided bomb, the forward air controller spots the target with a laser beam, an intense narrow cone of light. Reflected radar radiation off the target is picked up by a second plane which dives into attack, locks onto the target electronically and pitches its bomb onto the laser beam. A guidance seeker on the bomb nose rides the beam home. Pilots armed with the electrooptical or TV guided bomb pick up the target on a five-inch television screen in their cockpit. Similar to a standard 8TV camera, the optical seeker in the bomb's nose locks onto the target and automatically guides the weapon to impact, steered on the way by a guidance control system which maneuvers the tail fins much like the tail assembly on an airplane. Although reported to be highly accurate, the smart bombs can be used only in good weather when the target can be sighted visually by pilots. Smart bombs are not intended as a replacement for conventional bombs which still see heavy usage in nighttime raids, in bad weather and against larger targets where pinpoint accuracy is unnecessary. Air Force officials estimated that smart bombs accounted for less than one per cent of the 800,000 tons of aerial munitions dropped in Indochina in 1971.

Memphis Must Change Plans

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Judge Robert M. McRae of U. S. District Court ordered the Memphis Board of Education Wednesday to come up with two alternate plans for further school desegregation. The judge said the board may, at its discretion, hire members of a desegregation team from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to help. But he noted that new HEW policy, announced over the weekend, means that the members won't be subject to HEW control. The judge said he had relieved a federal team he appointed Dec. 12 from any further work on the case. HEW officials revealed over the weekend that they have issued new guidelines to prevent the HEW from participating in drafting desegregation plans unless it is asked by local school officials. McRae's order requires the newly installed school board to devise at its own expense two plans, one for minimal busing and another more extensive busing plan to insure a 30 per cent racial minority in each city school. Judge McRae said the board must file a court report within 14 days outlining the means by which they intend to prepare the plans. The only plan for further desegregation of Memphis schools now ready for the court was prepared by the NACCP.

Young Hijacker Fails as Crew Runs Away

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A young gunman who told a fellow passenger "I work for the devil and I'm going straight to hell and take everyone with me" commandeered a jetliner in a dramatic hijacking effort that ended with the crew making a mad scramble for freedom. The hijacker had demanded $1 million and two parachutes and indicated he wanted to go to South America where he planned to bail out into the jungle. "We got a chance to run and we ran like hell," said Capt. Tom Hill, who along with six other crew members escaped from the Braniff 727 jetliner following nearly seven hours of captivity on a remote runway at the Dallas airport. Air piracy charges were to be filed today against Billy Eugene Hurst, 22, of Mesquite, Tex., who was arrested without resistance about 30 minutes after the crew made their break for freedom. The hijacker, armed with a .22-caliber pistol and carrying a small travel bag which he said contained dynamite, took control of the plane and its 94 passengers on a flight from Houston to Minneapolis. Only clothing and ammunition for the pistol were found later.

The hijacker allowed the passengers to disembark after the plane landed at Dallas, but the crew was held in the plane. Donald Roberts of Mission, Kan., a sales manager for the Remington electric shaver company, was sitting by the hijacker during the flight. Roberts said the hijacker had asked him who he worked for and when he replied, the young man said: "I work for the devil and I'm going to go straight to hell and take everyone with me." Stewardess Pat Hampton said the hijacker took pills throughout the six hours and 50 minutes the jetliner sat at the airport. He later told authorities he used marijuana and had "tried heroin once." Hill, the pilot, said another stewardess brought him a note from the hijacker while the plane was en route to Dallas from Houston. The hijacker, in addition to the money and parachutes, demanded that a jungle survival kit, maps, and a .357 magnum pistol be brought to the air-liner. Hill said Hurst indicated he wanted to bail out over the jungle, make his way to Bogota, Columbia, and join up with friends.

Industry Cannot Meet Stringent Air Laws

By DAVID SHAFER
Associated Press Writer
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state Environmental Conservation Department says stringent new federal standards for air quality cannot be met in some parts of the heavily industrialized Buffalo area of western New York, even with the best antipollution technology now known. In an air quality implementation plan prepared for submission to the federal Environmental Protection Agency, the department reported Tuesday that standards for particulate matter in the air—dirt and soot, for example—cannot be met in south Buffalo, Lackawanna, Tonawanda, North Tonawanda or Niagara Falls. The state is requiring industries in those areas to use the best available means to cut down on pollution, the report said, but unless technical breakthroughs occur within the next few years that will not be enough. The only alternative—shutting down those industries which cannot be sufficiently controlled—was rejected because of its impact on already high unemployment in the Buffalo area, the plan said. The 1970 Federal Clean Air Act requires the states to submit a plan for meeting two levels of air quality control for six kinds of air pollution. The first, or primary, level sets standards which are considered necessary for the maintenance of health. The stricter secondary standards are those considered necessary for "social well-being." States must meet the primary standards by 1975, although they can get a two-year extension if technology is not available. The secondary standards must be met within a "reasonable time" thereafter. The state plan says that federal primary standards for sulfur dioxide in the air can be met by 1975 in all areas of Upstate New York, but that the secondary standards will not be met in south Buffalo, Lackawanna, Tonawanda, North Tonawanda or Albany. The other federal air-quality standards—for carbon monoxide, photochemical oxidants, hydrocarbons and nitrogen dioxide—will generally be met after the 1975 automobile-emission controls take effect, the state plans said. Available technology is not the problem, however, in meeting the federal standards for reducing sulfur-dioxide pollution. Industries can switch from high-sulfur coal and oil to natural gas or low sulfur coal or oil. But the Environmental Conservation Department contends that costs and other factors are prohibitive.
